

Master's Thesis

HIV/AIDS education of children and teens living with HIV in South Africa with a focus on the purposeful use of media and the optimized presentation of the information material regarding a sustainable knowledge transfer as well as sociological and cultural difficulties

Providing education and moral support and guidance through a Journey Book for HIV-positive teenagers in the township Khayelitsha in cooperation with the aid organization Generation Ubuntu

German Title:

HIV/AIDS Aufklärung von HIV-positiven Kindern und Jugendlichen in Südafrika mit Fokus auf den gezielten Medieneinsatz und die optimierte Darbietung von Informationsmaterialien im Hinblick auf eine nachhaltige Wissensvermittlung sowie auf soziologische und kulturelle Schwierigkeiten

Aufklärung, moralische Unterstützung und Wegweisung durch ein Journey Book für HIV-positive Teenager im Township Khayelitsha in Kooperation mit der Hilfsorganisation Generation Ubuntu

Program of Study: Communication and Media Management (MSc)

Time Period: 02.08.2015 to 01.02.2016

Author: Monique Heyden

Cooperation Partner: Generation Ubuntu

Table of Contents

List of Abbreviations

Table of Figures

List of Tables

1. Introduction

- 1.1 HIV/AIDS Awareness and Education in South Africa
- 1.2 State of Research
- 1.3 Cooperation with Generation Ubuntu
- 1.4 Goals and Methodology

2. HIV/AIDS Situation in South Africa

- 2.1 Background Information on South Africa
 - 2.1.1 History
 - 2.1.2 Ethnicities
 - 2.1.3 Social Structures
- 2.2 HIV Prevalence in South Africa
 - 2.2.1 Rates By Province
 - 2.2.2 Rates By Age and Gender
 - 2.2.3 Rates By Ethnicity
- 2.3 Key Affected Populations in South Africa
 - 2.3.1 Women
 - 2.3.2 Children and Teens
 - 2.3.3 Men having Sex with Men (MSM)
 - 2.3.4 Sex Workers
 - 2.3.5 Drug Users
- 2.4 HIV/AIDS - a Taboo Topic
 - 2.4.1 Cultural Influences on HIV
 - 2.4.2 Sociological Influences on HIV
 - 2.4.3 HIV Myths in South African Townships
 - 2.4.4 Influence of HIV Education and Prevention Programs

3. HIV-Positive Children and Teenagers Living in South Africa

- 3.1 Main Reasons for HIV Infections among Children and Teenagers
 - 3.1.1 Mother to Child Transmission (MTCT)
 - 3.1.2 Sexual Abuse
 - 3.1.3 Early Sexual Debut and Teenage Pregnancy

4. Definition of the Target Group

4.1 Characteristics of the Target Group

- 4.1.1 Social Background
- 4.1.2 Level of Literacy and Education
- 4.1.3 Prior Knowledge About HIV
- 4.1.4 HIV Status
- 4.1.5 Problems Related to HIV

4.2 Personas of the Educational Material

5. Creation of the Educational Material: Presentation Medium and Content

5.1 Prevention through Education

5.2 Research At Generation Ubuntu Regarding the Educational Material

- 5.2.1 Qualitative Research: In-Depth Interviews with the Generation Ubuntu Staff
- 5.2.2 Quantitative Research: Surveys with the Generation Ubuntu Teenagers

5.3 Didactical and Methodological Components of the Education Process

5.4 Resulting Media Choice: Journey Book

- 5.4.1 Functionality and Goals of the Educational Journey Book
- 5.4.2 Print vs. Electronic Provision

5.5 Resulting Content of the Journey Book

- 5.5.1 Chapters and Their Purpose

6. Creation of the Journey Book: Overall Concept

6.1 Combination of Text and Pictures

- 6.1.1 Choosing the Key Medium
- 6.1.2 Text-Picture-Relationship

6.2 Storytelling: Narrative Knowledge Transfer

6.3 Layout and Design

- 6.3.1 Layout Grid
- 6.3.2 Fonts
- 6.3.3 Color Scheme
- 6.3.4 Orientation Guide

6.4 Publishing

7. Creation of the Journey Book: Target Group Oriented Texts

7.1 Required Text Types

- 7.1.1 Theoretical Knowledge Imparting Texts
- 7.1.2 Human-technology-interaction oriented texts

7.2 Optimizing the Understandability of Texts

- 7.2.1 Basis: Karlsruhe Comprehensibility Model
- 7.2.2 Conclusion: Understandable Texts through Plain English
- 7.2.3 Special Needs of the Target Group

7.3 Standardizing Text Specifications

- 7.3.1 Functional Design
- 7.3.2 Standardized Terminology

8. Creation of the Journey Book: Target Group Oriented Pictures

8.1 Significance of Guidance Codes

8.1.1 Explicit Guidance Codes

8.1.2 Implicit Guidance Codes

8.2 Significance of Localization

8.3 Significance of Standardization

8.3.1 Standardization Guidelines

8.3.2 Modular Drawing

8.4 Special Requirements of the Target Group

8.4.1 Text and Language Independence

8.4.2 Taboos in Pictures

9. Testing and Optimization of the Journey Book

9.1 Test Set-Up

9.2 Findings and Resulting Optimization

9.2.1 Interactive Elements

9.2.2 User Guidance

9.2.3 Texts

9.2.4 Format

10. Conclusion and Prospect

Bibliography

Sources of the Master's Thesis

Additional Sources of the Journey Book

Appendix

Note to the Journey Book Pictures

Research Round 1: Interview with the Facilitators of Generation Ubuntu 13.08.2015

Research Round 2: Interview with the Psycho Social and Health Workers of Generation Ubuntu 14.08.2015

Research Round 3: Interview with the Program Manager of Generation Ubuntu
31.08.2015

Research Round 4: Quiz with the Generation Ubuntu Teens from Class 3 & 4 14.10.2015

Evaluation

Research Round 5: Usability Testing with Four Children of Class 3 and Four Children of Class 4, 14.10.2015

Statement in Lieu of an Oath